FAQ's

Q. Why do I have to bring my financial information to my counseling session?

- A. During your counseling session, a counselor will work with you to complete a monthly household budget. The counselor then uses this information to help determine how much you can afford to pay for your house payment, as well as to develop a spending and saving plan. For homeowners who are behind on their mortgages, lenders will ask for this information before they will approve a workout for your loan.

Q. Will you share my financial information with my lender?

- A. Homes on the Hill will not share any personal information, including household financial information, with your lender without your consent.

Q. Do I have to live or buy a house on the West Side to use your services?

- A. No. Homes on the Hill services are available to any Central Ohio resident.

Q. Do you have to pull my credit report?

- A. Yes, a tri-merge credit report with scores will be pulled for every individual during their initial counseling session; there is a fee of $16.00 for this service. If you are able to bring in a tri-merge credit report with scores that was pulled within the last 2 months, we will not pull your credit report and you will not have to pay the fee. This fee will also be waived for post-purchase households in crisis.

Q. Will pulling my credit report affect my credit score?

- A. Yes, this will count as an inquiry which may affect your credit score slightly.
